Forming Saints and Educating Scholars

“FOR HIS GLORY, WE WILL GO!”

Our Mission: Sacred Heart Catholic school community provides a Catholic foundation which cultivates disciples of Jesus and fosters academic excellence for all God’s children.

Mr. Barlag’s Blog

Although it seems like this new school year has just begun, we are past the halfway point in the first quarter. This weekend will be a good time to check your child’s grades and progress. If you have concerns, please call your child’s teacher now. We do not want any surprises in three weeks.

The final preparations are being made for a visit by a team of teachers and principals from the Archdiocese of Indianapolis. This team will be conducting an internal review of our school’s continuous improvement journey. I will report back to all our stakeholders their commendations and recommendations.

Patriot’s Day, September 11th will be marked once again by opening our school day at the flagpole for a brief remembrance of the heroic work of our nation’s first responders during times of crisis. Parents and neighbors are invited to join with us at 8:00 am on this day.

As I am sure most are aware, there is much discussion by our local public school corporations regarding school calendars. I would like to hear your feedback on our school calendar and school day for next year. Please complete the 60 Second Ultimate Survey by clicking here.

As you and your family celebrate the Labor Day weekend, pause and reflect upon why we work. Does our work give glory to God? By our work are we building the Kingdom of God in Jeffersonville as we are called to do as disciples of Jesus? Are we grateful and do we pray for those who are looking for good work to support their families? I always find that the best place for this reflection and gratitude is on Sunday, when I join my faith community at Mass receiving the Eucharist (thanksgiving). How about you?

Enjoy the weekend and be safe!
